DETAILED ACTION

1. This office action is in response to the amendments of 7/5/2007. It is noted that claims 1 and 10 have been amended. Due to new grounds of rejection this Office Action is Non-Final.

Claim Objections

2. Claims 1 and 19 are objected to because of the following informalities: In claim 1, line 17, "valve plate," should be changed to --valve plate;--. In claim 19, line 1, "seal ember" should be changed to --seal member--. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 13-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In claims 13 and 15 the phrase "the rotary valve has a fixed side valve plate supported to float to be unable to rotate at a valve body portion fixed at a casing side and moveable side valve plate supported at a rotor side, brought into contact with each other on a slide surface orthogonal to the axis" is indefinite. Multiple grammatical errors, most notably a lack of punctuation and/or conjunctions, in the language of this phrase has made it unclear as to what two elements are "brought into contact with each other". Please pay particular attention to "valve plate supported to float to be unable to rotate". Furthermore, in claim 13, the phrase "a pressure chamber into which the high-pressure working medium is introduced is opened to a mating surface of the valve body with the fixed side valve plate" suffers similar shortcomings rendering it indefinite.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 1-12 and 18-22 are allowed.
6. Claims 13-17 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
